

Jack Foster

Managing Director
Head of Global Real Estate
Franklin Templeton Real Estate Advisors

Jack Foster, managing director and head of Global Real Estate, joined Franklin Templeton in 1987. Mr. Foster's responsibilities include advising institutional real estate investors on global property investments and management of global real estate portfolios, which include both property securities and unlisted property securities for the firm.

Before joining Franklin Templeton Investments, Mr. Foster worked as a commercial real estate broker in New York City. His real estate career started more than 20 years ago in Maryland and Virginia, where he worked in residential housing development. Mr. Foster earned a B.A. from Columbia University.

Jack Foster is portfolio manager of the Franklin Global Real Estate (Euro) Fund¹ and the Franklin Global Real Estate (USD) Fund¹.

¹ Sub-fund of Franklin Templeton Investment Funds, a Luxembourg registered SICAV. The fund is authorised for public distribution in Switzerland.