Term

The Fund has no maturity date. The Fund could be closed under the conditions laid down in the current prospectus of the Fund.

Objectives

Investment Objective

To seek to maximise income and growth of capital (total return), while contributing to social goals.

Investment Policy

The Fund invests a minimum of 75% of assets in corporate and government social bonds denominated in, or hedged back to, EUR. These bonds support projects in economically disadvantaged communities, such as social housing, professional training, microcredit and access to affordable healthcare, education and basic infrastructure. These investments may be from anywhere in the world, including emerging markets, although the Fund may invest significantly in Europe. Some of these investments may be below investment grade.

To a lesser extent, the Fund may invest in perpetual bonds, convertible securities, including contingent convertible bonds, asset- and mortgage-backed securities, and real estate funds.

Derivatives and techniques The Fund may use derivatives for reducing risks (hedging) and costs, and to generate additional income or growth (according to the risk profile of the Fund).

Sustainable investing The investment manager applies a proprietary rating methodology using various ESG criteria in pursuing its sustainability objective and selects securities meeting social bond standards or contributing to a positive social outcome. It also excludes or restricts investments in certain industries that are harmful to the environment or society, such as thermal coal, weapons and tobacco.

SFDR category Article 9 (sustainable objective under EU regulations).

bonds, below investment grade: Bonds represent an obligation to repay a debt, along with interest. Below investment grade bonds generally pay higher interest rates but are considered less likely to make all scheduled payments or repay the initial debt.

derivatives: Financial instruments whose value is linked to one or more rates, indexes, share prices or other values.

emerging markets: Markets of less economically developed nations, such as some nations in Asia, Africa, Eastern Europe and Latin America.

convertible securities, contingent convertible bonds: Bonds that convert into shares of a company upon a pre-determined event occurring. Contingent convertible bonds generally pay higher interest payments compared to other bonds due to the higher risk.

asset- and mortgage- backed securities: Bonds backed by consumer debt (such as mortgages, credit card and other loan-type debt) and whose income derives from the payments received from the underlying borrowers.

What are the risks and what could I get in return?

Risk Indicator

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets.

We have classified this product as 2 out of 7, which is a low risk class. This rates the potential losses from future performance at a low level, and poor market conditions are very unlikely to impact the capacity to pay you.

Be aware of currency risk. In some circumstances, you may receive payment in a different currency, so that the final return you get may depend on the exchange rate between the two currencies. This risk is not considered in the indicator shown above.

Other risks materially relevant to the product not included in the summary risk indicator:

- Credit risk
- Sustainability risk

For a full discussion of all the risks applicable to this Fund, please refer to the "Risk Considerations" section of the current prospectus of the Fund.

This product does not include any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment.

What are the costs?

The person advising on or selling you this product may charge you other costs. If so, this person will provide you with information about these costs and how they affect your investment.

Costs over Time

The tables show the amounts that are taken from your investment to cover different types of costs. These amounts depend on how much you invest, how long you hold the product and how well the product does. The amounts shown here are illustrations based on an example investment amount and different possible investment periods.

We have assumed:

- In the first year you would get back the amount that you invested (0% annual return). For the other holding periods we have assumed the product performs as shown in the moderate scenario
- EUR 10 000 is invested

Costs over Time	If you exit after 1 year	If you exit after 5 years
Total costs	580 EUR	864 EUR
Annual cost impact (*)	5.8%	1.8% each year

(*) This illustrates how costs reduce your return each year over the holding period. For example it shows that if you exit at the recommended holding period your average return per year is projected to be -0.2% before costs and -2.0% after costs.

We may share part of the costs with the person selling you the product to cover the services they provide to you. They will inform you of the amount.
