Franklin European Corporate Bond Fund

Class A (acc) EUR • ISIN LU0496369546 • A sub-fund of Franklin Templeton Investment Funds
The management company is Franklin Templeton International Services S.à r.l.

Objectives and Investment Policy

Franklin European Corporate Bond Fund (the “Fund”) aims to maximise the investment return by achieving an increase in the value of its investments and earning income over the medium to long term.

The Fund invests mainly in:

- higher-quality debt securities issued by corporations located or doing business in Europe, especially those denominated in euros

The Fund can invest to a lesser extent in:

- other types of securities, including government debt obligations, lower-quality debt securities, and equity securities
- structured products
- derivatives for hedging, efficient portfolio management and/or investment purposes

The Fund will seek to remove currency risk by hedging non-euro investments to the euro. In making investment decisions, the Fund’s investment team refers to detailed analyses of individual companies and economic trends in various countries.

The Fund may distribute income gross of expenses. Whilst this might allow more income to be distributed, it may also have the effect of reducing capital.

You may request the sale of your shares on any Luxembourg business day.

The income received from the Fund’s investments is accumulated with the result of increasing the value of the shares.

For further information on the Objectives and Investment Policy of the Fund, please refer to the section “Fund Information, Objectives and Investment Policies” of the current prospectus of Franklin Templeton Investment Funds.

The benchmark of the Fund is the Bloomberg Barclays Euro-Aggregate: Corporates Index. The benchmark is indicated for information purposes only, and the Fund manager does not intend to track it. The Fund can deviate from this benchmark.

Terms to Understand

Debt securities: Securities representing the issuer’s obligation to repay a loan at a specified date and to pay interest.

Derivatives: Financial instruments whose characteristics and value depend on the performance of one or more underlying assets, typically securities, indexes, currencies or interest rates.

Equity securities: Securities that represent an ownership stake in a company.

Hedging: A strategy for totally or partially offsetting particular risks such as those arising from fluctuations in share prices, currencies or interest rates.

Structured products: Packaged financial products whose value is generally linked to underlying asset(s) that are typically created to satisfy a need that cannot be met by investing solely in standard financial instruments available in the market.

Risk and Reward Profile

What does this indicator mean and what are its limits?

This indicator is designed to provide you with a measure of the price movement of this share class based on historical behavior.

Historical data may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the Fund. The category shown is not guaranteed to remain unchanged and may shift over time.

The lowest category does not mean risk free.

Why is the Fund in this specific category?

The Fund invests mainly in higher-quality debt securities of corporations located in or doing significant business in European countries. Such securities have historically proven to present some stability over time and have benefitted from a limited exposure to interest rates and movements in the bond market but the performance can fluctuate moderately over time.

Risks materially relevant not adequately captured by the indicator:

Credit risk: the risk of loss arising from default that may occur if an issuer fails to make principal or interest payments when due. This risk is higher if the Fund holds low-rated, non-investment-grade securities.

Derivatives risk: the risk of loss in an instrument where a small change in the value of the underlying investment may have a larger impact on the value of such instrument. Derivatives may involve additional liquidity, credit and counterparty risks.

Liquidity risk: the risk that arises when adverse market conditions affect the ability to sell assets when necessary. Reduced liquidity may have a negative impact on the price of the assets.

For a full discussion of all the risks applicable to this Fund, please refer to the “Risk Considerations” section of the current prospectus of Franklin Templeton Investment Funds.
