Franklin Global Multi-Asset Income Fund

Class A (Mdis) EUR • ISIN LU1309513767 • A sub-fund of Franklin Templeton Investment Funds
The management company is Franklin Templeton International Services S.à r.l.

Objectives and Investment Policy

Franklin Global Multi-Asset Income Fund (the “Fund”) aims to earn income and to increase the value of its investments over the medium to long term by investing in a wide range of asset classes and geographic regions to support a steady level of annual distribution with at least 50% of the annual distribution deriving from the income generated by its portfolio.

The Fund intends to manage its portfolio with half of the price fluctuation of global equity markets, but there is no guarantee that the Fund will achieve these targets.

The Fund invests worldwide in (i) equity securities issued by companies of any size which may be involved in mergers, liquidations or other major corporate transactions and (ii) debt securities of any quality (including lower-quality such as non-investment grade securities or securities in default) issued by governments, government-related entities and corporations.

The Fund can invest to a lesser extent in (i) alternative investments (such as commodities and property) achieved indirectly through eligible derivative instruments, (ii) structured products and (iii) up to 10% in units of mutual funds.

The Fund can use derivatives for hedging, efficient portfolio management and/or investment purposes.

The Fund may distribute income gross of expenses. Whilst this might allow more income to be distributed, it may also have the effect of reducing capital.

You may request the sale of your shares on any Luxembourg business day. For the distribution share class shown in this document, dividend income is distributed to shareholders.

For further information on the Objectives and Investment Policy of the Fund, please refer to the section “Fund Information, Objectives and Investment Policies” of the current prospectus of Franklin Templeton Investment Funds.

The benchmark of the Fund is the Custom 55% Bloomberg Barclays Multiverse (Hedged in EUR) + 40% MSCI All Country World + 5% Bloomberg Commodity Index. The benchmark is indicated for information purposes only, and the Fund manager does not intend to track it. The Fund can deviate from this benchmark.

Terms to Understand

Securities in default: Debt securities whose issuer condition has become uncertain and whose issuer is failing to make principal or interest payments when due.

Derivatives: Financial instruments whose characteristics and value depend on the performance of one or more underlying assets, typically securities, indexes, currencies or interest rates.

Hedging: A strategy for totally or partially offsetting particular risks such as those arising from fluctuations in share prices, currencies or interest rates.

Risk and Reward Profile

What does this indicator mean and what are its limits?

This indicator is designed to provide you with a measure of the price movement of this share class based on historical behavior.

Historical data may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the Fund. The category shown is not guaranteed to remain unchanged and may shift over time.

The lowest category does not mean risk free.

As the share class has no sufficient historical data available, simulated data based on a representative portfolio model or benchmark have been used instead.

Why is the Fund in this specific category?

The Fund invests directly or indirectly (through financial derivative instruments, structured products or collective investment schemes) in equity and fixed income securities, and (indirectly only) alternative investments (including commodities or property). Such securities and investment instruments have historically been subject to price movements due to such factors as general stock market volatility, sudden changes in interest rates, changes in the financial outlook or perceived credit worthiness of securities issuers, or fluctuations in commodity prices or real estate values. As a result, the performance of the Fund can fluctuate over time.

Risks materially relevant not adequately captured by the indicator:

Credit risk: the risk of loss arising from default that may occur if an issuer fails to make principal or interest payments when due. This risk is higher if the Fund holds low-rated, non-investment-grade securities.

Currency risk: the risk of loss arising from exchange-rate fluctuations or due to exchange control regulations.

Derivatives risk: the risk of loss in an instrument where a small change in the value of the underlying investment may have a larger impact on the value of such instrument. Derivatives may involve additional liquidity, credit and counterparty risks.

Emerging markets risk: the risk related to investing in countries that have less developed political, economic, legal and regulatory systems, and that may be impacted by political/economic instability, lack of liquidity or transparency, or safekeeping issues.

Liquidity risk: the risk that arises when adverse market conditions affect the ability to sell assets when necessary. Reduced liquidity may have a negative impact on the price of the assets.

For a full discussion of all the risks applicable to this Fund, please refer to the “Risk Considerations” section of the current prospectus of Franklin Templeton Investment Funds.
